1. Purpose

The parties wish to explore a potential business relationship (the "Purpose") and may disclose to each other certain confidential and proprietary information. This Agreement establishes the terms under which such information shall be protected.

2. Definition of Confidential Information

"Confidential Information" means any information disclosed by either party, directly or indirectly, in writing, orally, or by inspection of tangible objects, including but not limited to:

- Business plans, strategies, financial projections, and pricing structures
- Technical data, software, source code, algorithms, and product designs
- Client lists, supplier relationships, and operational processes
- Any other information designated as confidential by the disclosing party

Confidential Information does not include information that: (a) is or becomes publicly known through no breach of this Agreement; (b) was in the receiving party's possession before disclosure; (c) is received from a third party without restriction; or (d) must be disclosed by applicable law or court order, provided prior written notice is given where legally permissible.

3. Obligations of Confidentiality

Each receiving party agrees to:

- Hold all Confidential Information in strict confidence, applying no less than reasonable care
- Not disclose Confidential Information to any third party without prior written consent
- Use Confidential Information solely for the Purpose described in this Agreement
- Limit access to employees or contractors with a genuine need-to-know, bound by equivalent obligations
- Promptly notify the disclosing party upon awareness of any unauthorised disclosure

4. Term

This Agreement remains in full force for two (2) years from the date of signing. Confidentiality obligations survive termination or expiration for a further three (3) years.

5. Return or Destruction of Information

Upon request or termination, the receiving party shall promptly return or certifiably destroy all materials containing Confidential Information and provide written confirmation upon request.

6. No Licence

Nothing herein grants either party any rights, licences, title, or interests in the other's Confidential Information or intellectual property beyond the limited rights strictly necessary to fulfil the Purpose.

7. No Warranty

All Confidential Information is provided "as is." Neither party makes any representations or warranties — express or implied — as to accuracy, completeness, or fitness for a particular purpose.

8. Remedies

Each party acknowledges that breach may cause irreparable harm for which monetary damages alone are an inadequate remedy. Each party may seek equitable relief — including injunction and specific performance — in addition to all remedies at law or in equity.

9. Governing Law & Jurisdiction

This Agreement is governed by the laws of India. Any disputes shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the competent courts of Tamil Nadu, India.

10. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the parties on its subject matter, superseding all prior discussions. Any modification must be in writing signed by authorised representatives of both parties.
